

K-Love is the only Christian music station in our area that my daughter will listen to. It has had a very positive influence on her. Removing this station by allowing an LPFM station to take it's place, would mean she and other teens would no longer have a good, wholesome, Christian station to listen to.